About the Exchange Program

Undergraduate students enrolled in DEA may spend one semester, and in some cases, up to a year, studying at the Università Commerciale Luigi Bocconi in Milan, Italy.

Università Bocconi is a city campus, an integral part of urban life and just five minutes away from the city center via public transport. The Bocconi campus expresses, in terms of architecture and urban planning, the University’s cultural vision, marked by innovation and avant-garde thinking, as well as an international calling that Bocconi has in common with the city. Each campus building is the work of important architects and is intended as an integral part of the city fabric.

Milan is Italy’s financial, industrial, and commercial centre, and known as a leading global city. It hosts 11% of Italy’s university students, and is filled with landmarks, museums, and theatres. Milan became a fashion capital in the 1980s, as several firms, such as Versace, became internationally successful. The city is well known for several international events and fairs, including Milan Fashion Week and the Milan Furniture Fair, the largest of its kind in the world.

Budget

Exchange students pay tuition to their home University. Cornell Students pay Cornell Tuition. Housing and Travel Expenses are additional.

Application

Enrollment forms are available from the Human Ecology Exchange Office. They should be submitted together with other required documents to the Exchange Program Office at MVR183.

Deadlines

Fall Semester- March 15
Spring Semester- September 15

For more information about applying, contact:

Dr. Pauline Morin
Director of Exchange Programs Human Ecology
pmm24@cornell.edu

This brochure is printed on 100% recycled paper.
Photos courtesy of Pauline Morin.
Cornell University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action educator and employer.
THE ACADEMY

About Università Bocconi

Università Commerciale Luigi Bocconi, founded in 1902, was the first Italian university to grant a degree in economics. For a century, Bocconi has played a leading role in Italy’s social and economic modernization. It has remained true to its founding values of being a major research university, with democratic values and open to the world, as well as financially and politically independent.

Università Bocconi has an Undergraduate School, a Graduate School, a School of Law and a PhD School. SDA Bocconi School of Management, founded in 1971, takes care of the post-experience management education. The university is considered to be among the top 10 best business schools in Europe according to the 2013 Financial Time’s European Business School Rankings.

The University offers numerous cultural, sporting and discussion-oriented activities organized directly or in collaboration with the city.

COURSES

English and Italian

The Undergraduate School coordinates and supervises 7 three-year Bachelor programs, three of which are held entirely in English: Bachelor of International Economics and Management, Bachelor of International Economics and Finance and Bachelor of International Politics and Government) and the World Bachelor in Business, a four-year Bachelor program in English developed in partnership with Marshall School of Business (University of Southern California) and Hong Kong University of Science and Technology.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Bocconi University provides off-campus students with approximately 1500 places in dorms.

Residences for students are Bocconi Residence, Javotte Residence, Kramer Residence, the more modern Arcobaleno Residence, Spadolini Residence and the latest Dubini Residence. The type of accommodation varies between the residences and the choice is among single rooms in apartments for either one, two or four people. The residences offer services to students such as cleaning services, laundry rooms, study rooms, parking spaces. Many students, however, choose to rent private apartments which are easy to find around the university area.