Laura Hubbs-Tait is the John and Sue Taylor Professor of Human Environmental Sciences at Oklahoma State University. She received her Ph.D. in Psychology from Boston University in 1981 and completed a NIMH post doc at the University of Texas at Austin in 1982. Her research for the past 10 years has focused on the family and school contexts of White and American Indian preschool children growing up in poverty in rural Oklahoma. She is a consulting editor for the Infant Mental Health Journal.