Top-Off Criteria

The Graduate School will top-off all external awards that provide at least 50% of the 9-month stipend and annual health insurance for an award if the award is typically available to students in multiple colleges. We will generally top off to the nine-month minimum stipend rate, except for the NSF Graduate Research Fellowship as below (topped off to 12-month GRA rate). The Graduate School will provide supplementation for the stipend/health insurance; the college will be responsible for all tuition. (We will also top-off for one semester any one-semester awards that provide at least 50% of the one-semester stipend and health insurance.)
