

The DNS Didactic Program in Dietetics

Student Intent form

2019-2020

As soon as you decide to complete the requirements of the DNS Didactic Program in Dietetics (DPD), please complete this form and return to B36A Kinzelberg Hall. This form may also be found on the DPD website. In addition, please contact Professor Emily Gier (eg47@cornell.edu) to request a dietetics planning meeting. If at any time you decide not to complete these requirements, please notify us. Thank you!

Deadlines for submitting this form: September 30th (FALL) and February 15th (SPRING)

I am aware that information about the DPD, including the program Handbook and policies, is available on the dietetics web site. I understand that students interested in completing DPD requirements will need to apply to the DPD, typically in their junior year. Students who are not accepted into the program, or choose not to apply, will no longer be identified with the "Dietetics" milestone in Cornell's academic records system, which will affect the ability to enroll in any (NS) "dietetics-preferred" courses.
