

Cornell University
 College of Human Ecology
 Human Development

Application to Graduate with a Minor in Human Development

Complete this form and return it to G421 MVR Hall with an unofficial transcript during your final semester at Cornell.

Name: _____ Netid: _____ Date: _____

Cornell ID #: _____ College: _____ Major: _____

Expected Graduation Year: _____

| HD courses taken | Semester | # Credits | Grade |
|------------------|----------|-----------|-------|
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |

Course Requirements (5 courses in total)

One of the following courses:

- ▶ HD1100 Lifespan Development
- ▶ HD1150 Human Development: Infancy and Childhood
- ▶ HD1170 Human Development: Adolescence and Emerging Adulthood

AND

Four other courses in Human Development:

- ▶ must include at least 6 credits at the 3000 or 4000 level
- ▶ There will be no substitutions allowed for the required coursework.

General Requirements

- ▶ All courses must be taken for a letter grade unless S/U is the only option offered.
- ▶ You must earn a grade of B- or better in every course.
- ▶ HD Special Studies classes (HD4000, 4010, 4020, or 4030) do not count towards an HD minor.

Total number of qualifying HD credits: _____

Questions should be addressed to:

HD's Director of Undergraduate Studies, hd-dus@cornell.edu

OR

Tim Snyder, in person G421 MVR/ by phone 607.255.3181/ by email to tps78@cornell.edu

Date application to graduate submitted: _____

For Office Use Only: Requirements for Minor satisfied: Date: _____ College Registrar notified: Date: _____