The 5-year Bachelor /MHA program has been designed so that students can obtain a bachelors degree and a master of health administration in 5 years. This program can be completed with four years of undergraduate work, and one year of graduate work (the last year enrolled formally as a student in the Cornell Graduate School).

It is best if a student decides in the freshman or sophomore year to participate in this program so they can start taking courses that will help them through the program and processes. Students formally apply for admission in their junior year. If a student decides in their senior year not to complete the graduate program, they will have earned a Bachelors at the end of that year.
