t 607.227.7259 e jlw15@cornell.edu or jlwilk01@syr.edu

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. Nutrition and Food Science, Washington State University, 1991
Interdisciplinary PhD Program: Nutrition; Consumer Science; & Agricultural Economics. Advisor: Virginia “Val” N. Hillers, PhD.
Dissertation: The Role of Environmental Concerns in Food Preference Among Food Cooperative Members and Non-members in Washington State.
- M.S. Nutrition Education, Teachers College, Columbia University, 1981. Advisor: Joan D. Gussow, EdD. Masters Project: Effect of Nutrient Density Alterations on Thrifty Food Plan Market Basket Costs.
- B.S. Nutrition, Huxley College of Environmental Studies, W. Washington University, 1978

CREDENTIALS

Registered Dietitian (RD) Clinical Dietetic Residency, University of Washington Hospitals, 1983

PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

Courtesy Professor of Practice January 2020 – present
Division of Nutritional Sciences
Cornell University

Professor of Practice Emerita and Affiliated Faculty July 2019 – present
Department of Nutrition and Food Studies
Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics
Syracuse University

Daina E. Falk Professor of Practice in Nutrition August 2014 – May 2019
Department of Public Health, Food Studies and Nutrition
Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics, Syracuse University

- Fall 2014-May 2019. Curriculum Committee, Department of Public Health, Food Studies and Nutrition. Committee Chair since Fall 2015.
- Fall 2014-2018. Member, Falk College Faculty Council.
- Instructional development. In the summer of 2018, completed Summer Institute for Technology Enhanced Teaching and Learning.
- Faculty advisor for a student organization established in Fall 2018 – Slow Food SU, developed and founded by four former students in both NSD 511 and NSD 455.
- Courses taught:

NSD 511 Nutrition Education, 3 credits (taught in both spring and fall semesters)
NSD 658 Participatory Program Planning, 3 credits
NSD 756 Food & Public Policy, 3 credits
NSD 997 Masters Thesis (mentored 3 masters theses)
NSD 455 Community Nutrition, 3 credits
FST 309 Philosophy and Practice of Locavorism, 3 credits

Community Coordinator, Dietetic Internship Program
Cornell University

2009-2014

In consultation with community-based dietetic intern preceptors, developed individualized learning plans for annual classes of 10 interns. Learning plans included a research topic for each intern that was specific and salient to her or his supervised professional practice placement site.

- Graduate Instruction. Community Nutrition in Action (NS 6250) Fall semester 2009-2014. This course was designed to integrate with and enhance Community Nutrition supervised professional practice rotation. The integration of theory and practice was considered at individual, interpersonal, community, and systems levels. Students explored current and emerging roles public and private community nutrition programs play in public health. External influences on program effectiveness and success, such as food marketing, policy, and food system contexts were discussed.
- Supervised professional practice in Community Nutrition. Through placements in community programs, students gained real world experience in assessing, designing, implementing, administrating, and evaluating food and nutrition programs for targeted populations through not-for-profit, public, and for-profit private entities.
- Lunch Lab. Developed to: increase understanding of practical implications of integrating food skill development into nutrition education; identify and fill gaps in food skills among dietetic interns; and, identify appropriate food skills nutrition education content for diverse audiences. NS 6250 students worked in teams to lead entire class in preparing a lunch menu over the course of the Fall 2013 Semester. Constraints: Lunches were to feature at two vegetables and one fruit (both in season), provide a whole grain and a complete protein, be void in added trans fats, provide a minimum of between 450 and 500 calories per person, and adhere to MyPyramid recommendations, the Dietary Guidelines and any other class-generated criteria.

Senior Extension Associate
Division of Nutritional Sciences, Cornell University

1993-2014

Applied research and extension program focusing on food systems and health. Outreach involves traditional workshops, presentations, and manuscripts as well as several media channels including print, radio, websites, and other electronic communication.

- Syndicated columnist. The Food Citizen appeared monthly in the Albany Times Union covering issues related to nutrition, public health, food systems, and policy. (2006-2011)
- Director, Cornell Extension Farm to School Program
- Director. Cornell Farmers Market Nutrition Outreach Program
- Completed a two-year leadership program, Agriculture and Food Systems Leadership Institute, for Extension Educators. (March 1999 – October 2000)
- Established a project to increase public issues education skills of extension educators on issues related to genetically engineered foods and crops.
- Completed CALS Faculty Leadership program. (January 7-11, 2008)

Study Coordinator (Post-Doctoral Training)

1992-1993

Washington State University, Pullman and Puyallup, WA

Project Assistant. Going Global Program

1990 - 1992

Washington State University Cooperative Extension. Pullman, WA

Nutritionist, Women, Infants and Children (WIC) Program

Summer, 1991

King County Health Department. Bellevue, WA

Clinical/Outpatient Dietitian

1986 - 1987

Harborview Medical Center, Seattle, WA

Clinical Dietitian 1984 - 1986
Virginia Mason Medical Center, Seattle, WA

Clinical Dietitian 1983 - 1984
Harborview Medical Center. Seattle, WA

FELLOWSHIPS

Distinguished Visitor May 27-31, 2013
University of Canberra. Faculty of Health: Nutrition and Dietetics. Canberra – ACT, Australia.

Visiting Professor Fellow October 2008-April 2009
Università Degli Studi di Scienze Gastronomiche (University of Gastronomic Sciences), Italy. Graduate Course (Colorno campus): Food Systems Concepts and Controversies. Enrollment: 15 international students. Undergraduate Course (Pollenzo campus): Introduction to Human Nutrition – Concepts and Controversies. Enrollment: 65 international students.

Kellogg Food and Society Policy Fellow Class IV: 2004-06
WK Kellogg Foundation with the Thomas Jefferson Agricultural Institute

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2014 to 2019 Syracuse University. 12 credit teaching load includes the following courses: Community Nutrition (NSD 455); Nutrition Education (NSD 511); Participatory Health Program Planning (NSD 658); Philosophy and Practice of Locavorism (FST 309); Food and Public Policy (NSD 768)
- 2009 to 2014 Cornell University. Taught Community Nutrition in Action (NS6250) a 3-credit graduate course taught in conjunction with 14-week supervised professional practice in Community Nutrition as part of the Cornell Dietetic Internship Program
- 2010 to 2012 Visiting Professor, Università Degli Studi di Scienze Gastronomiche (University of Gastronomic Sciences). Teach graduate and undergraduate seminars on food system and health topics.
- 2008-09 Visiting Professor Fellow, Università Degli Studi di Scienze Gastronomiche. Graduate Course, Colorno campus: Food Systems Concepts and Controversies. (Enrollment: 15 international students). Undergraduate Course, Pollenzo campus: Introduction to Human Nutrition – Concepts and Controversies. (Enrollment: 65 international students).
- 2006 Visiting Professor, Università Degli Studi di Scienze Gastronomiche, Pollenzo and Colorno, Italy. Taught a one-week seminar course, Food Systems and Health, as part of the Nutrition program.
- 2003-04 NS 380. Integrating Food Systems and Human Nutrition Needs. 3 credits.
- 1993 to 2019 Cornell University. Guest Lecturer in a variety of courses within the College of Human Ecology and the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, including: NS 120: Nutrition and Health; NS 380 Integrating Food Systems and Human Health; and NS 498 Honors in Nutrition. CSS 190: Sustainable Agriculture; RS (Rural Sociology) 340: Food, Agriculture and Modern Society; NS625 Community Nutrition in Action; NS 245: Social Science Perspectives on Food and Nutrition
- 1990 to 1991 Teaching Assistant. Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition, Washington State University, Pullman, WA. Foods Lab, Introductory Nutrition. Diet Therapy Lab, Introductory Nutrition

1989 to 1990 Visiting Instructor. Department of Nutrition Education. Teachers College, Columbia University. New York, NY. Taught core courses, Nutritional Ecology and Nutrition and Behavior. Team taught Strategies for Nutrition Education and Behavior Change.

RESEARCH SUPPORT

Principal Investigator. Scaling up Farm to School Through Extension Educator Leadership Development. Federal Formula Funds – Smith Lever and Hatch grant. Term: October 1, 2011-September 30, 2014. Total award: $120,000.

Research Team member: Healthy Gardens, Healthy Youth: A People's Garden, a USDA-funded People's Garden project. Term: April 15 2011 – Sept 15, 2013. Collaborator: Cornell University Cooperative Extension in New York City (CUCE-NYC) and Washington State University Extension (WSUE). $1 million from the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Nutrition Service (<$100,000 to CU) to create new school gardens and education programs in high-poverty schools, the USDA. Collaborators include: Brad Gaolach, Martha Aitken, WSU; Gretchen Ferenz, Caroline Tse, CU CCE NYC; Arkansas; Iowa.

Co- Investigator. School Gardens: improving youth health & linking old with young. Smith Lever, Hatch. $120,000.00. October 1, 2011 - September 30, 2014.

Principal Investigator. Eat Your Vegetables! Does seasonal Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) membership increase annual produce consumption? One year extension on Federal Formula Funds – Smith Lever funded project. Original grant: $60,000. 3-years 10/01/07 – 09/31/10

Co-Investigator. Foodprints and Foodsheds: Tools for Evaluating the Sustainability of Dietary Patterns and the Geography of the Food System. (Co-PI) Funding Agency: WK Kellogg Foundation. Request: $790,873. Award: $790,873 for four years. Start Date: March 1, 2009; End Date: February 31, 2013.

Principal Investigator. Let Us Eat Kale! Impact of Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Programs on Children's Preferences, School Food Service, and New York Agriculture. Federal Formula Funds – Smith Lever grant $120,000. 10/01/08 to 09/31/11.

Principal Investigator. Eat Your Vegetables! Does seasonal Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) membership increase annual produce consumption? Federal Formula Funds – Smith Lever grant $60,000. 3-years 10/01/07 – 09/31/10 Your role? Co-Investigator?

Principle Investigator. Developing a Taste for Healthy Weight and Healthy Farms in New York. Federal Formula Funds. Cornell University Agricultural Experiment Station, Ithaca and Cornell Cooperative Extension $40,000, 10/01/05 – 09/31/08..

Principal Investigator. Building Professional Capacity to Enhance Farm to School Marketing and Distribution Networks. Northeast Regional Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education Professional Development Grant Program. $110,487.00. 09/01/05-08/31/07.

Co-investigator. Strengthening Communities Engagement in Sustainable Local Food Systems. NESARE. Collaboration with Joan S. Thomson, Ph.D. (PI), Penn State University and Michael Hamm, Rutgers University. 10/1/2002 – 9/30/04. $33,332.

Principal Investigator. Growing Community Food Systems Through Collaboration and Empowerment. Smith/Lever. $150,000, over 3 years: 10/01/01 - 09/30/04

Principal Investigator. Linking Local Foods and the College Cafeteria to Strengthen Community Food Systems. FY01-03 Research & Extension Integration Grants Program. $20,000.00 over two years: October 1, 2001 - September 30, 2003, 60:40 split, Extension/Research.

Co-investigator. From Farm-to-School: Improving Small Farm Viability and School Meals. Multi-state IFAFS (Initiative for Future Agriculture and Food Systems) project. USDA/CSREES, 10/1/2000 – 9/30/2004. Total award: $2.04 million. Cornell portion: $158,400 over four years.

Principal Investigator. Public Issues Education on Genetically Engineered Foods and Crops. Federal Formula Funds, Smith-Lever, 8/1/2000 – 7/30/2002. $45,000 each year for two years.

Co-investigator. New York Food Demand and New York Agricultural Potential. Bills N, Wilkins J, Smith RD. Hatch, $20,000 for 18 months.

Co-investigator. Commodities, Consumers, and Communities: Local Food Systems in a Globalizing Environment. NE-185 Regional Project. Hatch. 1997-2002. $75,000.

Principal investigator. Enhancing Community Food Systems Through Experiential Learning.(Wilkins J, Eames-Sheavly M, Pritts M, Lyson T. 1997-2000. $117,787 USDA/CSREES. Renewal 2001, $45,000.

Co-investigator. Developing Action Plans to Expend Awareness and Demand for Locally Produced Fresh Market Vegetables. (Rangarajan A, Stivers L and Wilkins JL.). Funding Agency: Cornell CE Experiment Station Statewide Program Committees. Funding Period: 9/1997 to 8/1999: $9,000.00.

Co-investigator (15% effort). Integration of nutritional goals and food systems. (C Garza, et al, P.I.): Rochester Community Plant Food Project. 1996-7 $270,000. USDA-CSREES.

Principal Investigator. The Northeast Network Community Food Security Video Project. 1996-7. $8,000. Kellogg Foundation.
