TEACHING

Mentor for Clinical & Translational Education Program, Weill Cornell Medical College, 2010-Present.

Mentor and Professor for IMAGINE: Ithaca-Manhattan Graduate Initiative in Neuroscience. NIH funded graduate training program sponsored jointly by Cornell University, and Weill Cornell Medical College, 2010-Present.

Inducted into the Golden Key International Honour Society, November 22, 2008; nominated by undergraduate students at Cornell University in recognition of impact on students.

- Instructor for Empirical Research for between 15 and 20 students per semester (undergraduate and graduate students), Department of Human Development, Cornell University, 2005-Present.
- Instructor for graduate course on Risk and Rational Decision Making, Department of Human Development/Psychology, Cornell University, 2006-Present.
- Instructor for Risk and Opportunity Factors in Childhood and Adolescence, Department of Human Development/Psychology, Cornell University, 2019-Present.
- Instructor for Translational Research in Decision Making, Department of Human Development/Psychology, Cornell University, 2008-Present.
- Instructor for undergraduate course on Risk and Rational Decision Making, undergraduate seminar, Department of Human Development/Psychology, Cornell University, 2006-Present.
- Instructor for undergraduate course entitled "Selected Topics in Psychology," Department of Psychology, Cornell University, spring 2005.
- Instructor for Learning and Memory, core course for undergraduates, University of Texas, spring 2005.
- Instructor for Risk and Rational Decision Making, graduate seminar, University of Texas, fall 2004.
- Instructor for Higher Mental Processes, core course for graduate students, University of Texas spring 2004.
- Instructor for undergraduate course entitled "Selected Topics in Psychology," University of Texas, spring and fall 2004.
- Instructor for Independent Study for more than 20 students per semester (undergraduate and graduate students), University of Arizona & University of Texas at Arlington, 1996-2005.
- Mentor and advisor for women/minority students and faculty throughout the University of Arizona, 1987-2003.
- Lecture for College of Public Health, Division of Health Promotion; "Health Care Professionals' Biases in Risk Estimation," (March 28, 2001)
- Lecture for College of Education course in Teaching and Teacher Education, "Multivariate Analysis of Bias." (March 20, 2001)
- Lecture for College of Medicine; "Grant and Publication Strategies" designed for faculty, residents, and fellows in the Department of Surgery and Department of Pediatrics (March 22, 2001)
- Instructor for course entitled, "Evidence Based Medicine," (Course #MED815a), University of Arizona, Department of Medicine, 2000, 2001
- Lecture for Department of Surgery Retreat, "Grant Strategies," April 21, 2000
- Speaker, Strategies for Success: Assessing Learning and Teaching at the University of Arizona, Sponsored by the Office of the Provost and the Faculty Development Team, (January, 19, 2000)
- Instructor for course entitled, "Evaluating Medical literature, (Course in Clerkship Program), University of Arizona, Department of Medicine, 1999
- Lecture for Social and Behavioral Sciences Selective (Medicine, 805), "Strategies for Improved Clinical Decision Making," May 1999
- Lecture for Medicine Grand Rounds, "Research on Emergency Medicine and Surgery," 1999
- Lecture for Surgery Grand Rounds, "Clinical Decision-making Under Uncertainty: Guidelines and Outcomes," 1999

Lecture for Cardiology Section, "Deviations from Practice Guidelines," 1999

Lecture for Resident Core Lecture, "Statistics for Clinicians," 1999

Lecture for Surgery Grand Rounds, "Chest Pain Research and Study - Results and Review," 1998

Lecture for Cardiology Section, "Outcomes Assessment Research," 1998

Lectures for Educational Psychology Child Development (501), Sierra Vista, AZ, 1998

Lecture for Resident Core Lecture, "Statistics and Clinicians," 1998

Lecture for medical students and graduate medical students at Morning Report, "Risk and Cardiovascular Disease in Women," 1998

Instructor for "Research Methods: Department of Medicine, 1997, 1998

Lecture for Medicine Grand Rounds, "Deviations from Practice Guidelines for Unstable Angina," 1998

Lecture for Mexican-American Studies (MAS 297A) entitled "Professional Latino Leadership," 1998

Speaker, Minority Achievement Program, 1996

Instructor, Informatics and Decision Making Laboratory, 15-20 students per semester enrolled in Independent Study, 1996-Present

Faculty Mentor, College of Education Honors Program, University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, 1991-1996

Academic advisor and supervisor for master's theses and doctoral dissertations, University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, 1988-Present

Instructor for graduate course entitled "Disciplined Inquiry," (statistics and research methods) University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, Fall, 1995

Instructor for graduate and undergraduate courses entitled "Risky Decision Making in Childhood and Adolescence," University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, Spring, 1995

Instructor for graduate course entitled "Research Methods in the Developmental Sciences," University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, Spring, 1994

Instructor for graduate course entitled "Seminar on Teaching and Learning," University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, Fall, 1992; Spring, 1993

Instructor for graduate course entitled "Reasoning, Decision Making, and Development," University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, Spring, 1991

Instructor for graduate course entitled "Adolescent Development," University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, Fall, 1990

Instructor for undergraduate course in "Child Development," a service course required for teacher certification, University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, every semester but Fall, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1994

Instructor for undergraduate course in "Educational Psychology: Learning," a service course required for teacher certification, University of Arizona, Department of Educational Psychology, every semester, Fall 1988-Spring 1994

Supervisor for Students involved in independent research projects, master's theses, and doctoral dissertation research, as Director of the Laboratory for Communication and Judgment, University of Texas at Dallas, Department of Psychology, 1981-1987

Instructor for graduate course entitled "Judgment and Decision Making," University of Texas at Dallas, Department of Psychology, 1983, 1984, 1986

Instructor for undergraduate course entitled “Choice and the Framing of Decisions,” University of Texas at Dallas, Department of Psychology, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1987

Instructor for undergraduate course entitled “Human Communication,” University of Texas at Dallas, Department of Psychology, 1982, 1984, 1985, 1987

Instructor for graduate course entitled “Psycholinguistics: Human Communication,” University of Texas at Dallas, Department of Psychology, 1981, 1983

Instructor for undergraduate course entitled “Language Development,” University of Texas at Dallas, Department of Psychology, 1984, 1985, 1986, 1987

Instructor for graduate course entitled “Proseminar in Psychology,” University of Texas at Dallas, Department of Psychology, 1981, 1983

Chaired graduate and faculty seminar entitled “Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Study of Metaphor,” Princeton University, Department of Psychology, 1980-1981

Research and statistical consultant to graduate and undergraduate students, Princeton University, Department of Psychology, 1979-1981

Organized a graduate seminar entitled “Interdisciplinary Seminar” bringing together perspectives from neuroscience, philosophy, linguistics and psychology, Princeton University, Department of Psychology, 1979-1980

Supervisor for New York Academy of Sciences Student Internship Program, the Rockefeller University, Experimental Psychology Laboratory; selected five high school students to participate in a research apprenticeship program under my supervision; awarded a grant by the New York Academy of Sciences to continue the program, 1977-1980

Instructor for undergraduate course entitled “The Psychology of Language: Human Communication,” Marymount Manhattan College, Department of Psychology, 1978

Instructor for undergraduate course entitled “Empirical Research II” (statistics), Marymount Manhattan College, Department of Psychology, 1978
